Objectives of the Graduate School of Agriculture
(Extract from Graduate School Regulations)

As a pioneer in the varied fields of agricultural science in Japan and overseas, the Graduate School of Agriculture aims to foster researchers and highly specialized engineers who are knowledgeable and skilled, as well as demonstrate wholesome, harmonious human nature. We encourage and assist in the development of logical thinking and problem-solving capabilities based on realistic education while seeking to provide education and conduct research in the fields of biological resources, life sciences, environmental science and health science, as well as management and economics.

Name of degree awarded

The university rules and the regulations of academic degree will be changed in 2020. The “Master of Agricultural Science” will be conferred on all the Master’s students getting into the university in 2020. For all the Doctoral students, the “Doctor of Philosophy in Agricultural Science” will be awarded at the time of graduation.
