Last Call for Papers/Poster Abstracts

The submission deadline for the ISSAAS International Congress 2014 is just less than a week from now. You are all invited to submit on or before September 15, 2014. Abstracts can be sent via email to issaas14@nodai.ac.jp with the subject heading Abstract for 2014 ISSAAS, with the registration form attached. The Committee on Paper Presentation reserves the right to decide on the final form of presentation. The presenters will be advised via email on the acceptance of their paper submissions by October 1, 2014. Accepted abstracts will be published in the Conference Proceedings.

Since only active ISSAAS members may present a scientific paper or poster, kindly update your membership at your respective chapters in advance. The organizing committee will request a list of active members from each chapter before the congress program is finalized.

All inquiries regarding paper submissions may be directed to the ISSAAS Congress Secretariat at issaas14@nodai.ac.jp.

Notices: (1) Posters should not have been presented in any scientific meeting. (2) Papers should present the results of an original unpublished research. (3) As top author, a member may only present one scientific research in the form of paper(oral) or poster presentation. (4) The organizing committee reserves the right to remove accepted paper or poster for non-payment of registration fee and/or inactive membership.

Congress Tour

The congress tour is scheduled on November 10, 2014 (Monday). The tour itinerary¹ is as follows:

8:30 am	Assembly in front of NODAI Academia Center
8:50 am	Departure from Tokyo NODAI
10:15 am -11:15 am	RIKEN Gallery (Saitama)
12:10 pm -13:10 pm	Lunch ²
13:10 pm - 14:30 pm	KIKKOMAN Soy Sauce Museum and Goyogura (Chiba)
15:15 pm - 16:00 pm	Asakusa ³ (Tokyo)
17:00 pm	Arrival in Tokyo NODAI

RIKEN Gallery

RIKEN is Japan's largest comprehensive research institution renowned for high-quality research in a diverse range of scientific disciplines. The RIKEN gallery displays highlights of past and latest research in the exhibit space. Displays include RIKEN's history and explanations of cutting-edge research achievements in physics, chemistry, engineering, bioscience and medicine.

KIKKOMAN Soy Sauce Museum & Goyogura

This museum provides a wide range of information about naturally brewed Kikkoman Soy Sauce, including the history of soy sauce, details about its production process and features of soy sauce, together with recommended recipes. A tour walking around and looking at the modern massive factories in process is arranged with English guides.

Goyogura, in the same premise, was built to produce soy sauce exclusively for the Imperial Household, and it has continued to produce soy sauce by using wooden vats and original equipment. Looking around Goyogura together with the Museum, visitors may become familiar with soy sauce and its production.

Asakusa

Asakusa is a district at the center of Tokyo, where an atmosphere of past decades survives. Asakusa's main attraction is Sensoji, a very popular Buddhist temple, built in the 7th century. The temple is approached via the Nakamise, a shopping street that has been providing temple visitors with a variety of traditional, local snacks and tourist souvenirs for centuries.

Notes:

¹ Tour itinerary is subject to change due to weather, traffic conditions and others factors beyond our control.

² Although lunch will be provided, there are no special arrangements made for participants with dietary restrictions related to religious or medical reasons, and such participants are requested to bring their own food.

³ For those who wish to enjoy Tokyo more and go back to the hotel on their own, there is an option to leave the tour group at Asakusa from 16:00 before the tour group leaves for Tokyo NODAI.

For those who wish to join the congress tour, you are kindly requested to fill-in and submit the attached congress tour form and send to issaas14@nodai.ac.jp on or before 8 October 2014, with subject heading Congress Tour. Only those who have paid the registration fee can join the congress tour.
